December 1, 1886, Kurtz was brought back to the Troy jail pending the district attorney's appeal to the Court of Appeals. The appeal was dismissed, and the second trial of Kurtz in the Court of Sessions last month resulted in the prisoner's acquittal. Subsequently the indictment against Porter was

> A Girl Abducted. BROOKLYN AND CHICAGO DETECTIVES DISCOVER THE

MISSING MISS BOPE. About two weeks ago an advertisement was printed in a Chicago paper for a companion to a middle-aged lady. Among the 300 women who responded was Miss Nina Bope, twenty years old may readily find the home of a friend, the same as and exceedingly pretty. At the house indicated would meet her at the train. Soon after the girl's departure her mother conferred with Pinkerton's | SELLING UFF! New York city to have the girl met at the train and sent back to Chicago. On her way to New York Miss Bope became confused and took the wrong train at Utica. While explaining her plight to the conductor Mrs. Henry Pape, of 976 9th avenue, who sat in an adjoining seat, volunteered to take charge of her. On their arrival in New York they were met by Mr. Pape, and Miss Bope went with them. Being informed of her situation by Miss Bope, Mr. Pape wired to Mrs. Croak, in Chicago. Mrs. Croak wired to her brother, and next day he appeared at the Pape house and demanded the girl. Mr. Pape asked nim who he was and was informed that he was with Gregory & Co., of 54 New street. Inquiry at the above number was productive of nothing, as Croak was not known. He took the girl away, however, and it was learned that she had been taken to 226 Monroe street, Brooklyn. Meanwhile, Mrs. Croak, in Chicago, has been arrested, charged with abduction. In her possession was found a dispatch signed "Charlie," as follows: "Can't manage her. Come immediately or will send her back." The authorities went to the Monroe street house. Miss Bope appeared, and while the detectives were explaining their errand Croak entered the parlor. He put on a bold front and demanded an explanation. The only reply the men gave was to take the young lady to New York. She told the detectives that she had been thirty-two hours in the house, and that no harm had befallen her. She was sent back to Chicago at her own request. Croak will now have to explain. He asserts that he is innocent. Suspended D. A. 126 Declares War. CIRCULAR CALLING UPON KNIGHTS OF LABOR TO DEPOSE THE GENERL OFFICERS. A circular, headed "Why the general officers should be deposed," was received by Knights of Labor officials in Pittsburg yesterday. It is signed by the officers of the suspended District Assembly 126. The circular begins: "We believe the order and the cause of labor

have reached a crisis in their history, and you must decide whether the order is to be what its ounders intended-the hope and bulwark of the ollers-or a machine to register the will of despots and to be used against loyal men and women, whom it promised to protect; whether it is to be an order of, for and by the people, or the cats-paw sonal hatred, and who seek only self advancement. We regret that stern necessity compels us to thus address you, but we would be false to our pledge if we neglected to warn you of the dangers urrounding the Knights of Labor, and they threaten us all if the despots at its head are allowed to go on unchecked." The general officers are then accused of attempting to destroy District Assembly 126, and a history of the fight between it and District Assem- | $3,000 bly 49 follows, which, the circular says, the signers can substantiate with affidavits. A comparison is then drawn between the board's action in boycott ing Higgins & Co., who employ only Knights of Labor, and in not boycotting the Smith Company, which has evicted and blacklisted its employes, The cause of this action is said to be Jno. Morrison's exposure of the home club. The circular con-

"This is not our fight alone. District Assembly 126 has led the vanguard in the struggle against official despotism, and it devolves upon every loyal local and district assembly to join hands with us so that we may rid the organization of the reigning despots. A blow has been struck at us. You may be the next. Therefore we say take action and speak out quickly. The time has come for those who think as we do to act and place themselves in communication with District Assembly 126, so that we may accomplish the object just set forth. Let us know what action you take."

Bishop Adams is Eligible. Cambridge, Md., Special to the Baltimore American Of the sixty-odd bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, forty-three, or more than a majority, have confirmed the election of Right Reverend W. F. Adams as bishop of the diocese of Easton. But one bishop has dissented. and that is Bishop Burgess, of Springfield, Ill. who, while speaking highly of Mr. Adams, objected on the ground that he was ineligible, having rehouse of bishops that the canon be made to include missionary bishops, was voved down. The question of Bishop Adams being legally elected is practically settled, as a majority of the bishops, having in mind the canon referred to, have re ported favorably, and all the standing committees yet heard from, though not a majority, have been unanimous in endorsing the election.
